Vote and comment to Town Meeting - Favorable Action (5-0)

Through this article, the proponents seek to amend the Town Bylaws to allow for the appointment of non-residents to committees of the Arlington Commission for Arts and Culture (ACAC). In addition, the proponents request a change in the appointing authority of one of the Core Committee member appointments from the Cultural District Managing Partnership, which no longer exists as a stand-alone entity, to an additional at-large member recommended by the Town Manager and appointed by the Select Board. The Board supports both proposed changes.

The Board agrees with the proponents that in some cases, it may be appropriate to appoint a non-resident of Arlington to an ACAC

Committee. Specifically, although there are members of the Arlington business community or non-profit arts community who are Arlington residents and are willing to serve, there are also willing and capable non-residents of those communities who are invested in the Town's arts and cultural scene who could make valuable contributions to the Commission.
